June 23 - 26, 2019
Fairmont Kea Lani Resort
Maui, Hawaii

Western Association for Vitreoretinal Education

The Western Association for Vitreoretinal Education was founded in 1990 to provide a forum for discussion of topics related to disorders of the retina, macula, and vitreous. WAVE began a collaboration with the Ophthalmic Imaging Conference in 2011 to further promote this mission.

W.A.V.E. / O.I.C. 2019 will be held in the idyllic setting of Maui, Hawaii.

Course Objectives:

W.A.V.E. / O.I.C. 2019 will offer attendees the opportunity to update their knowledge of:

- ◆ Age related macular degeneration
- ◆ Diabetic retinopathy
- ◆ Macular disease
- ◆ Retinal vascular occlusive disease
- ◆ Uveitis
- ◆ Instrumentation/surgical techniques
- ◆ Pharmacology

Course Directors:

The Fairmont Kea Lani is a magnificent all-suite resort located on Maui's famed Polo Beach in Wailea.

The resort boasts 413 one-bedroom suites with separate living, sleeping, and bathing areas. In addition, 37 distinct two and three bedroom villas are available, each complete with a full kitchen and private lanai.

Recreational activities at the Kea Lani include: three swimming pools, two jacuzzis, water slide, fitness center and spa, sandy beach, sailing, kayaking, snorkeling, wind surfing, arts and crafts session, daily children's program, and nearby golf.

Reservations:

The Fairmont Kea Lani is offering suites to conference participants at a special package price. To secure this rate, reservations must be made by calling (800) 659-4100 or (808) 875-4100. Please inform the hotel that you will be attending the W.A.V.E. / O.I.C. Conference.

Because demand for this resort area is high in June/July, early reservations are encouraged. Reservations made after April 1, 2019 may be on a space available basis only.

Additional resort information may be found at www.fairmont.com.
